Motions and Resolutions

Senator Lee was recorded present at this order of business.

On request by Senator Davis, granted by unanimous consent, President Little appointed a committee consisting of Senator Lakey, Chairman, and Senators Souza and Burgoyne to escort Chief Justice Roger S. Burdick into the Senate Chamber where he delivered the following State of the Judiciary Address:

Mr. President, Mr. President Pro Tem, and distinguished members of the Idaho Senate, my colleagues on the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, and fellow Idahoans.

It is always a great pleasure to discuss with you the State of the Judiciary. It is an honor to address you and each year I have carried a theme - be it of change or demographics. This year's theme is transformation.

Because of your foresight last year, the Idaho judiciary has a solid foundation to build upon to address retention and recruitment of Idaho's judges; initial funding for our modern case management technology and attendant move to electronic records and filing; and finally your significant change to Idaho's criminal justice framework with the Justice Reinvestment Initiative.

Starting with the theme of "transformation" I can think of nothing more appropriate than the completion of the Snake River Basin Adjudication. This event puts Idaho as a leader in the nation. The ceremonial signing of the final decree of the Snake River Basin Adjudication headlined by Justice Antonin Scalia marked the end of the largest water adjudication ever finished in United States history. This signing was the capstone of twenty-six years of unprecedented cooperation between the Idaho legislature, executive branch and the judiciary leading to the cataloging of over 150,000 water rights of Idaho's citizenry. The effort took the combined efforts of five district judges, four governors and hundreds of legislators, and the SRBA administrative staff but it will prove its worth in the future.

The Legislature is correct to continue this cataloging throughout the state. Water is vitally important in Idaho's history, today, and for the future. How do we manage it and grow without knowing who owns what? Congratulations again are in order for an important job well done.

We continue transformation in our court administration. Patti Tobias, our Administrative Director of the Courts for twenty years resigned to take a new position with the National Center for State Courts in Denver, Colorado. Her service was marked by unrelenting energy, unwavering respect and love for Idaho's court system, especially its trial judges and her absolute honesty in approaching this body and the executive branch to accomplish the State's work. We thank her again for her vision and work throughout the years.

Gladly, she continues with us in the ongoing implementation of the Justice Reinvestment Act through our contract with the National Center for State Courts.

The Supreme Court continues to search for her replacement. To date we have reviewed 84 applications from throughout the nation. In an attendant move, the Court formally appointed former Chief Justice Linda Copple Trout as the interim Administrative Director and Senior Judge Barry Wood as the deputy director. Both have proven over the last months to be very adept at continuing the strong administration of the Idaho Judiciary. It is unprecedented in the nation to have a former Chief justice come back to serve as Administrative Director. We are very grateful for her service. I can say without reservation both have the complete trust and backing of the Idaho judiciary.

Justice Trout and Judge Wood's work has been helped by the strong leadership of our Division Directors, Janica Bisharat, Andrea Patterson, Roland Gammill, Kerry Hong, and Kevin Iwersen. They had previously fashioned a transition plan under Patti's leadership and have continued their exemplary service. Thanks to all of our administrative staff during this transition.

I want to touch upon the theme from last year of demographic change and the importance of the Court's ongoing efforts to recruit the "best and brightest" from the ranks of Idaho's lawyers and magistrate judges.

This demographic change is illustrated by the many retirements on the district and appellate bench with many more likely to come in the near future. Eighteen district and appellate judges have retired since 2009 and as of June 30, 2014, another 34 (63%) are eligible to retire within the next five years. In January three more retired. Additionally twenty-four magistrates will have retired by the end of this month. It is crucial during this time of transition that we continue to recruit the most highly qualified individuals to serve in the judiciary and that we ensure that they are fully trained and supported.

I would also like to take time to thank those attorneys familiar with our judicial candidates for participating in the Idaho State Bar surveys. We need trustworthy responses from those attorneys who know our judicial candidates. I want to encourage all Bar members to continue to support this important source of information to our Magistrate Commissions and the Judicial Council.

Lastly, another thank you to the Idaho Legislature for your continuing commitment to judicial salaries. House Majority Leader Mike Moyle and Senate Majority Leader Bart Davis were instrumental in last year's legislative session helping us to address the need for competitive salaries. We also thank the chairs of our germane committees Senator Lodge and Representative Wills for ongoing support.

We continue on our odyssey for the transformational overhaul of the court's statewide case management and computer system. This system is well named - Odyssey. This new technology configuration will consolidate the forty-four servers throughout the State to one in-house web based server in Boise with redundancy in Meridian. Moving to this shared platform will allow the Idaho judicial branch to dramatically improve data quality, information sharing and incorporate consistent practices and forms across all of our courts.

This new technology will also favorably impact all of Idaho's law enforcement, governmental agencies and our citizens who depend upon the courts for up to date information. It is hard to explain the amount of vital information produced and disseminated by the courts on a routine basis. We are mindful of this and are working hard to accommodate those needs. Efforts are underway to also preserve our historical data by converting it to our new system as part of this transformation to electronic court records.

At this date we are on budget and on schedule to pilot this spring the program in Twin Falls County. I would like to take this opportunity to recognize the Twin Falls County Commissioners and other local officials for their efforts to pilot this program. I especially want to thank two elected clerks of the court, Twin Falls County Clerk, Kristina Glascock and Ada County Clerk, Chris Rich for their efforts. They have not only worked closely with us, but have marshalled county personnel for the data conversion efforts.

We continue to keep a close eye on the technology fund revenues you have authorized. If there is a down-turn in case filings it will necessarily impact available funds. If that happens we will have to come to you to solicit your advice to help bridge the gap.

In 2012 I spoke to you of the need for renovation or new construction of court facilities throughout the state. The court together with the counties has done a survey of physical facility needs and the need is great. We are moving ahead to help counties have access to information and plans in conjunction with the National Center for State Courts. In fact later today the National Center for State Courts will give a presentation to our elected clerks, county commissioners and court personnel on court facilities. This is an area of great need not only for the safety of citizens and employees but also for prudent use of county funds.

I am very proud of the progress of our Guardianship Committee. In the last two years they have surveyed existing rules and statutes, reviewed national standards and made needed statutory and rule changes. The committee continues to work on future legislative initiatives to give guardians, conservators, and the protected persons as well as interested parties further guidance and clarification of rights, obligations and procedures. We hope to present you with future legislation to make sure all interests have been considered.

I have been licensed to practice law since 1974 and I believe your enactment of the Justice Reinvestment Initiative is the most important change, indeed a transformation, in criminal justice during my career.

Senate Bill 1357 passed last year because of the hard work of all three branches of state government and the Council of State Governments Justice Center. Its introduction generated a tremendous amount of work and debate among our forty-five district judges and thankfully you listened.

It has properly focused our state on evidence based practices which devote resources to community based programs rather than building more prison walls. Additionally JRI calls for a rejuvenation of "what works" within the prisons themselves and finally it strengthens the procedures and decision making of our parole system.

To make JRI a success, we must continue a vision for the long course, moving all aspects of the criminal justice system to a scientific and evidence-based sentencing and correctional practice. This will not be accomplished overnight or without additional resources. It will take years to train and change the attitudes and practices historically entrenched in all aspects of the criminal justice system. It is vital that the Legislature stay committed to the reinvestment of correctional savings to the goals of community supervision, training of probation officers, and community rehabilitation resources.

Another criminal justice commitment made last year is improvement of the county-based public defender system.

The Idaho Legislature took notice that since 1923 in State v. Montroy that all citizens accused of crimes have a right to a "fair and impartial trial and every reasonable opportunity to prepare a defense." Most importantly - "in a case of indigent persons accused of a crime, the court must assign counsel to the defense at public expense." We hope further study, education, and resources will result in a new, creative approach to this constitutional duty.

The creation of the Public Defense Commission, with its Executive Director, Ian Thompson, has already resulted in numerous new training opportunities for criminal law practitioners. The Commission continues to explore new ways to help county commissioners furnish public defense services. It is an exciting first step.

Besides public defense in a criminal case, there is a vital issue of due process and equal access to justice that needs resources and analysis - foreign language interpretation. It is axiomatic that if a person cannot understand the court proceedings and the court cannot understand them, there can be no due process of law.

Because of Idaho's rural nature, many counties lack access to professional, qualified court interpreters. Providing language access goes beyond locating a bilingual person to provide interpreting or translating services. While being bilingual is a needed prerequisite, it does not sufficiently qualify a person to serve as an interpreter or translator for the courts.

In 2014, court interpreters were secured for 47 different languages and this trend will only increase. In the future we will be coming to you for additional resources to assist trial courts in constructing a statewide, coordinated program of recognition, training and accessibility to language assistance.

In summary, the State of Idaho's judiciary is very strong by any benchmark. We have all but finished the original SRBA, the largest in the nation's history. Our recruitment efforts for the "best and brightest" have been expanded and strengthened. We have drilled down to analyze and identify delay in every case type through our Advancing Justice Initiative.

Our creative approach to old issues has resulted in over 66 courts statewide following a problem solving model. New procedural rules and techniques have been adopted to help divorce litigants get through this emotional experience in a more expedient way. Additionally, high conflict divorces and child custody cases have been given more and varied resources.

We have embarked on an aggressive program to bring our Guardianship and Conservatorship procedures up to date. Our technology initiative is a sea-change in how we will file cases, handle those cases, keep and disseminate our records. We are looking at all alternatives including bridging gaps with senior judges, before coming to you and our counties for new judgeships.

We are strong but that doesn't mean there are not challenges ahead. I've mentioned a few - Justice Reinvestment Initiative implementation and most importantly REINVESTMENT, public defender improvement, court facilities at the county level, interpretive resources, competitive salaries and new judicial positions. We are truly embarked on a transformational period in our court's history. We will keep you informed and stand ready to assist in these important policy decisions for all Idahoans.

Because of the remarkable working relationship we have with the Legislature and Governor, we can and will continue our shared vision of excellence for a safe and strong future for all Idaho citizens.

GOD BLESS.

The President thanked Chief Justice Burdick for his remarks and Senator Lakey, Chairman, and Senators Souza and Burgoyne escorted Chief Justice Burdick from the Chamber, and the Committee was discharged.

Senator Thayn was recorded present at this order of business.

On request by Senator Davis, granted by unanimous consent, the Senate returned to the Sixth Order of Business.
